Welcome to all who have come to worship with us on this day
May the blessings of the Lord be upon you and may all your prayers be answered

July 10, 2016
Second Sunday after Transfiguration

We thank you, O Lord our God, for having granted us restful sleep in peace. Having awakened us, you have brought us together early in the morning to worship your awe-inspiring and glorious, Holy Name. Lord, we ask you to lead us through the remainder of this day in peace. And throughout the entire pilgrimage of our lives, strengthen and protect us in the fear of you. So that with good heed, living a blameless and religious life in this world, we may arrive at your safe and peaceful harbor of eternal life. By the grace and love of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him, with you, Father, and your Holy Spirit is befitting glory, lordship and honor. Now and always and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Holy Scriptures Reading - Isaiah 3:16-4:1; Epistle - 1Corinthians 1:25-30; Gospel - Matthew 18:10-14
MATTHEW 18: 10-14

"See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

The Divine Liturgy continues on page 18 with the reciting of the Nicene Creed
